Passport to the World

Yellowstone
National Park: Much More than Bison, Bears and Bubbling Hot Springs

1 – 2:15 p.m.
Thursday, Oct. 20
Preston Ridge Campus
Conference Center

Let Professor Rebecca Harris be your guide to the world's very first national park. Come on a trip through Yellowstone, a place like no other on Earth, where breathtaking mountain waterfalls, boiling springs, alpine lakes, bears and bison all share land resting on top of America's only supervolcano, the Yellowstone Caldera. Come and celebrate this wonder of nature and the 100th anniversary of the National Park Service with us.

Harris is a professor of speech communication at Collin College.

The event is FREE and open to the public.
