MEETINGS ARE A GREAT PLACE TO IMPRESS PEOPLE. HERE'S HOW:

3. Sit opposite the leader. You'll get more involved and be noticed.
4. Don't monopolize discussion. If you feel you have to comment on every issue, you're probably talking too much.

CARTOON CORNER:

From the October 1990 "Readers Digest":

In our class on fluids at Georgia, Tech, we were discussing an impending exam. A classmate asked the professor, "Will condensation be on the test?"
"Depends on how much you sweat." the professor replied.
