STAFF NEWS:

The Cooperative Work Experience program has received the support of the Collin County Commissioners' Office. They have given their approval for all county offices to be in a partnership with the CWE Program. Four students have been placed in various county offices, and five more are expected to be placed there by next semester.

Team Day is Friday, Nov. 2!

Joyce M. Miller, professor of English, was invited to participate in the "Decade of Dreams," the theme of the annual meeting of The Texas Joint Council of Teachers of English. She presented a workshop on Oct. 6 titled "The High School to College Transition: What Writing Skills do English Professors Expect Incoming Freshmen to Have Mastered?"

Through the generosity of the faculty and staff, we were able to give Silvia Herrera more than over $700 in her time of need. Thank you to everyone who helped.

Shirley McBride, Developmental English, presented a program on colonial family life to the David Pendleton Society Children of the American Revolution in Dallas recently. Part of the presentation in poster form is on display in the DAR Chapter House for the 1990 Texas State Fair. Shirley serves the Jane Douglas Daughters of the American Revolution as DAR chair.

STAFF DEVELOPMENT:

The National Coalition of Advanced Technology Centers has announced a November 1-3 conference titled "ATCs: Tools and Technology for Industry" to be held at Rock Valley College in Rockford, Illinois. The conference will include presentations on the future of advanced technology centers. Contact Tom Rodgers, ext 6882, or Deanna Wilson, ext. 5800.

The date of Staff Development Day for the spring semester is Feb. 22, not the 15th as listed in the catalog or the Student Handbook. There will be classes on Feb. 15, but none on Feb. 22.

Also, there will be no All Staff Meeting on Feb. 22.

The thirteenth annual International Conference on Teaching Excellence is scheduled for May 19-22 in Austin. The conference is sponsored by the National Institute for Staff and Organizations Development (NISOD). Forms for submitting proposals are available from Tom Rodgers or Deanna Wilson. Deadline for submission of proposals is February 15.

Enterprise is offering a fall workshop titled "How to be an Effective Board Member" 7 - 9 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 18, at the Conference Center/SCC. For more information please call ext. 5852.

"Becoming Aware of Domestic Violence," a program dealing with the causes and problems associated with domestic violence, will be presented at 12:15 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 16, in the conference center/SCC.

The program is being presented as part of Student Activities' Social Awareness week, as part of Family Violence Awareness Month, and to provide information on the Collin County Women's Shelter.

All full-time employees will soon receive a packet announcing implementation of the college's new Employee Recognition Program. The goal of the program is to recognize and reward staff members for their contributions to the successful accomplishment of the college's mission and goals.

Additional forms are available in the Human Resources office at Central Campus and in the bursar's office at Spring Creek Campus. Part-time employees and adjunct instructors can pick up forms at these locations.

Please take time to nominate people on campus that you know have made an extra effort for the college and/or community.

MEETINGS ARE A GREAT PLACE TO IMPRESS THE RIGHT PEOPLE. HERE'S HOW:

5. Be optimistic about the group. A positive attitude about what the meeting can accomplish will translate into action.

6. Stick to the agenda. Don't use the meeting as platform to air your views. If you ever feel the urge to say, "Not to change the subject. . .," bite your lip!

more next week
