A sub-group of the All College Council is reviewing the current job classification process. If you have questions or concerns about this process that you would like included in the review, contact Wayne Rush, chair of the sub-group, or Tom Rodgers, chair of the All College Council. For information on current procedures contact Vicki Harris, chair of the job classification sub-group, or Barbara Haroutunian in Human Resources.

United Way Update

"Thank you!" to everyone who supported the 1990 CCCC United Way campaign. We collected $1,653.41 to contribute to the United Way this year. Way to go Ya'll! The winner of the free shirt for the agency puzzle contest was Karlyne Hendricks. (she guessed 105 - right on the money!) The winner of the candy jar in the bookstore at Spring Creek was Jon Roadschild (he guessed 345 and the number of candies was 339) and the winner of the candy jar at Central was Debbie Lawler (she guessed 301 and there were 311). Congratulations to everyone and thank you for helping your community.

MEETINGS ARE A GREAT PLACE TO IMPRESS THE RIGHT PEOPLE. HERE'S HOW:

7. Build on other's ideas. Showboaters won't do this. The boss will recognize and appreciate your value when you do. Don't change the focus prematurely.

8. Challenge the group. Pose "what if" questions. Get members to see new options.

COOPERATIVE WORK EXPERIENCE NEWS

The Cooperative Work Experience (CWE) division has developed a pocket resume available to anyone on campus. It is a recap of all relevant vital information used for job interviews and job references. Tips are also included on preparing for an interview, and suggestions are given for what to do after the interview. It is available for students and others to take with them on interviews and to help them be more prepared.

If you are interested in receiving copies of these pocket resumes for your students, contact the CWE office at ext. 6735, or stop by our office on Central Campus, B252, or Spring Creek Campus, B230.

STAFF NEWS:

Gerry Perkus has been re-elected as president of the North Texas Community College Consortium's Research Committee and as president of the Collin County Adult Literacy Council. Also, he will be making a presentation on "Effective Presentations" at the Southern Association of Institutional Research (SAIR) Conference in Fort Lauderdale next month and is on the program planning committee for the Texas Association of Institutional Research (TAIR) conference in Corpus Christi in February.

Billie Collins attended the annual Conference Council for Interinstitutional Leaders in Dallas, Oct. 5-6. It was titled "20 - 20 Foresight: The Strategic Role of Consortia in the 21st Century."

"Thank you for helping my family and me in such a special way, it made everything so much easier. I can't believe people can care so much and be so helpful. Thank you!"

Silvia Herrera

Dr. Lin Moore and the Child Development program co-sponsored the annual Collin County Association for the Education of Young Children Super Saturday Workshop Oct. 6 at the Spring Creek Campus. Child development students assisted as hosts for the approximately 300 participants who attended. Arrangements for the program were handled by Carolyn Carmen who is an advanced practicum student and assistant teacher in the CD laboratory school.

CARTOON CORNER:

"Oh Sweet Honesty" by Karlyne Hendricks

My grandchildren were in the yard playing
When I overheard by grandson saying
He was speaking to his dad
And his little voice was sad
As he spoke of his cousin Melissa,
He said with strong conviction -
Just because she's my cousin,
Do I have to love her?
May I not like her, may I please not, sir?
Then his dad with swift reaction,
As I've seen by husband do
Called to his wife -
Honey, Seth wants you!
