Staff Development:

A draft of 1991 task force assignments has been distributed to twenty-two locations on both campuses. Please make corrections in red ink; the drafts will be picked up on Dec. 3. Call Tom Rodgers if you have questions.

An All College Council group chaired by Nancy Brown is currently working to "Control Copier Costs and Conserve or Recycle Paper" in the district. Anyone wanting to contribute ideas should contact Nancy at ext. 5806.

A call for Nominations for Employee Recognition... Do you know a colleague who has shown exemplary service to the college, staff, students, or public? Is there someone who has designed and implemented an innovative approach, program, or process? Do you want to recognize an employee's special accomplishments, ideas, extra efforts, good deeds or other outstanding activities? Do you feel the need to honor an employee whose service has been primarily "behind the scenes"? If so, the Employee Recognition task force wants your nominations! Pick up nomination forms from the Bursar's Office at Spring Creek or the Human Resources Office at Central.

Staff News:

Mathew (Matt) Coulter, history instructor, made a presentation at the 8th annual conference on Language and Literacy Assessment held Nov. 9 - 11 at the World Trade Center in New York City. His topic was "Teaching and Testing Writing Across the Curriculum."

Cooperative Work Experience (CWE)

Response has been positive for the career fair being held at the Spring Creek Campus conference center from 1 - 6 p.m. on Nov. 26. Many students and employers have expressed an interest in attending. It is being co-hosted by Cooperative Work Experience and Career Planning and Placement. This career fair will be a forum for the area's leading employers to meet with students in all disciplines to discuss opportunities with their company. It is open to all students interested in part-time employment while in school, co-op positions, or post-graduation permanent jobs. Please encourage your students to attend (and to bring resumes). For more information, contact Helene Cavanaugh, ext. 5735, or Barbara Money ext. 5772.
