Global Village

If we were to create a global village of 100 people that represented our world:

56 would be Asian
21 European
9 African
8 South American
6 North American
6 would control 1/2 of all the wealth
50 would be hungry
60 would live in a shanty town
70 would be illiterate

STAFF NEWS

Task Force Dissolved

The Strategic Planning Task Force (SPTF), responsible since 1986 for designing and monitoring the college's long-term planning process, has been dissolved. Its functions and responsibilities are being assumed by the Council on Institutional Effectiveness (CIE), effective Jan. 1, 1991. To help in the transition, current members of the SPTF are being invited to participate in CIE during 1992. Any questions should be directed to Gerry Perkus at ext. 6617, CIE chairman.

College Services/Admin. Area

During 1991-92 the Council on Institutional Effectiveness (CIE) is implementing a pilot program for college services/administrative area assessments. Three areas are being assessed: Academic Advising, Business Services, and Institutional Research. For more information, contact Gerry Perkus at ext. 6617 CIE chairman.

Congratulations Russell!

Russell Kunz received a call from Dr. Geraldine Bower, special advisor to the president for consumer affairs requesting the use of his program "The JC Penney Institute for High School Consumers." It is to be used as an example of an exemplary program at the National Community Education Association Convention in St. Louis, Missouri Dec. 4-5. Handouts of Russell's final report will be handed out to convention members and the program will be discussed by Patricia Walt from Westmoreland Community College.

Many Thanks

"Many thanks to all who attended the teleconference 'Diversity in Higher Education: Can We Meet the Challenge?' It was an interesting and thought-provoking event. Special thanks to Estilita Young, Larry Stern, Wendy Burton and Charlotte LaForge for their Assistance."

A Note From the Tune Master

"It seems that the 'fabulous' Name that Tune game has really taken off. I'm getting more and more calls each day—some with the correct answer! I'm also quite pleased to report that most of the winners, of their own free will (read this: without my gently pressuring them), have offered not only to contribute their cash awards to the college-wide holiday toy/clothing/food drive, but to make their own donations as well. Thanks!

Congratulations (once again) to Alan Phippen and 'Lovely Rita Meter Maid,' winners week five—'Feeling Alright' by Joe Cocker—and 'Tiny Dancer,' Steve Miller; Carol Jenkins, 'Lovely Rita Meter Maid,' Alan Phippen, Helen DuPont, Joe Jaynes and Marti Miles-Rosenfield for recognizing the Beatles 'Sergeant Peppers's Lonely Hearts Club Band,' week six. Remember, there's a new tune every Monday morning—just dial ext. 5608."
