SACS Self-Study Update

Self-study subcommittees are currently developing questions to be incorporated into questionnaires for distribution in August. The Self-Study Proposal and In-House Manual has been submitted to SACS and will be available to self-study committees in a loose-leaf format. The document contains policies, procedures and guidelines relative to the self study; the self-study calendar; methodology to be used; writing/editing guidelines; committee organization and membership; plus other helpful information for use in the self-study. Copies are on reserve at the Resource Center in both LRCs.

Contact Billie Cunningham, ext. 5847 or Tom Rodgers, ext. 6880 with any questions or if you would like to volunteer for an assignment in the self-study.

Notice to All Supervisors

New contracts are needed for ALL student assistants and work study students. This includes both new student assistants/work study students and those who are continuing to work.

If the contracts are not renewed, the students will not be paid.

Contact Charlotte LeForge at ext. 5784 for more information.

Food Drive

An on-going food drive is being held at Central Park Campus. Items most needed at this time are peanut butter, canned fruit and baby food. These items will be taken to the McKinney Community Food Pantry each time the box is full. The donation box is located near the first floor elevator.

Notes from Public Information

As the new public information writer, I wanted to take this opportunity to introduce myself to those of you I haven't met and give those I have met some insight into my background.

I graduated magna cum laude from East Texas State University with a bachelor's degree in news-editorial journalism and English. I have two years experience in editing and writing copy for newspaper, magazine and book publishing. Prior to accepting my position at CCCC, I was an editor at the Dryden Press, a division of Harcourt Brace Jovanovich, where I copyedited and proofread business textbooks at the college level.

Along with spending a summer writing features for the Mid-Cities News, I also was the Assistant Sports Information Director for ETSU. As the assistant SID, I wrote press releases and features for the game programs, and served as a liaison between the local media and our office.

Please remember I am here to assist you in presenting your material to the college and the community. I am not here to rewrite your information, but I will try to polish any rough spots in your copy. For a press release to be acceptable to any media outlet, it must appear in Associated Press style—a style I have been working with for more than four years. Feel free to ask questions if you don't understand or don't agree with a change I've made.

Thank you,

Jill Klancnik

United Way

"It brings out the best in all of us." In the weeks ahead, you will be hearing this phrase throughout our community as people join together to help others through the annual United Way campaign.

Human care services supported through the United Way not only help the sick, disadvantaged or disabled, but average families who face unexpected problems or require professional help to meet basic human needs. Anyone who has visited one of the United Way agencies can see this help firsthand and be assured that his or her contribution is working to provide essential human services.

Last year, the contributions to United Way helped support more than 100 human care agencies providing services more than 2.3 million times to area residents. This year, in the face of further government cutbacks in funding of these services, your support is even more critical.

Giving to the United Way is a symbol of your concern for your own needs and those of your friends, neighbors and fellow employees. By joining so many agencies into one each contribute that he is doing for the greatest people. How part of giving to the good feeling you know you're making a difference to a lot of people you may not have met, but who need our help.

Collin County Community College's campaign will start on July 31, when you receive your payroll envelope. There will be two ways for you to make your contribution. You can make a direct donation, by writing a check, or you can complete the pledge card with your name and address, sign it and return it giving United Way permission to bill you later. We do not have the option of payroll deductions.

The CCCC United Way Campaign Team is made up of the following people. Spring Creek Campus: A Wing - Raquel Meyers, B Wing - Dinah Hampton, C Wing - Brendon Quigley, D Wing - Alan Pippin, F Wing - Anita Wormald, G Wing - Charlotte LeForge, H Wing - Miquel Alarcon, J Wing - Joan Crawford, K Wing - Monica Sanchez, and at Central Park Campus: A Wing - Ruth Dunlop, B Wing - Carol Jenkins. These team members will be available to answer questions about United Way and to receive your contributions. The campaign ends for CCCC on Aug. 21. For more information, call Anita Wormald at ext. 5849.

Study Grants for College and University Teachers

Grants ($3,000 for six weeks) are available to allow teachers to undertake well-designed programs of independent study and provide opportunities for faculty to increase knowledge in their discipline and pursue intellectual projects that will improve their teaching. (Not to be used for graduate degree work or research for publication.)

Applications are due Aug. 15, 1992. The National Endowment for the Humanities (NEH) is the sponsor. For more information, please call Martha Ellis at ext. 6606.

SPARK Student Makes a Big Splash at Local Pool

Project SPARK participant Mary Alice Hofmann makes waves where ever she goes. Along with earning a position on the Dean's List last spring, Hofmann spends some of her spare time teaching an adaptive aquatics class. Her class, however, isn't a typical swimming class—Hofmann helps mentally and physically disabled children learn to swim. She was certified in adaptive aquatics in 1984 and began teaching terrified swimmers classes. Hofmann teaches her class Tuesdays at Ford Park pool in Allen.

Muchacos and Muchacas: The Music of Peru

A Peruvian video presentation and recital, Musica del Cusco Milenario, is scheduled for Tuesday, July 28, at Spring Creek Campus. The program, featuring video concerts, Peruvian dances, a Kukuli symphonic poem and a recital with Armando Guevara Ochoa and Ruben Torres, begins at 6 p.m. in the John Anthony Theatre. Tickets are $10 and may be purchased at the door. For more information, call Estelita Young at ext. 5724.

Supplemental TASP Test Given

A supplemental administration of the TASP test will be given at Spring Creek Campus Aug. 15. Students who have not met their TASP requirement can register by calling TASP Registration at (512) 926-8746 July 20–24 and July 27–31. The cost is $65 and is payable only with a money order in the correct amount on the day of the test. For more information, call Stephanie Meinhardt at ext. 5739.

Public Service Announcements

Advertising art students in the Art Direction for Video class finished two public service announcements for the Crisis Center of Collin County. The PSAs were written, directed, edited and produced by students Roy Bogen, Karen Chancey, Rob Kline, Reed Olstrom and Nelie Tebbetts. Assisting the students were John Pronk, a producer/director at WFAA Channel 8 and Stephen Ward, a video specialist at Northern Telecom. The films were shot and edited in the Northern Telecom studios. The Crisis Center plans to air "Some Secrets Need to Be Told" (written, edited and produced by Tebbetts) and "You're Worthless" (written, edited and produced by Kline) on Plano Telecable, and possibly other local networks.

Students Blow Away Competition

Congratulations to the CCCC respiratory care students for winning the state-wide "Sputum Bowl" competition in San Antonio July 16. The Sputum Bowl is respiratory care's version of the college prep bowl. The students answer questions on all facets of respiratory care, including anatomy and physiology, microbiology and pharmacology. The first-year team members include Carrie Holland, Jan Orendain and LeAnn Wodicki. Terri Booth and Carol Schribner are alternate members. In addition to winning the student bracket of the competition, the team also defeated the practitioner's bracket champions—Children's Medical Center of Dallas. The CCCC respiratory care team will represent the state of Texas at the national convention in December.

All Staff Day and Fiesta

The All Staff Day and Fiesta will be held Friday, Aug. 21 from 8:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. More details to come from Martha Ellis in August.

Do You Have?

Do you have a remote-controlled vehicle that the Student Activities Office could use on Red Ribbon Day in October? It will be used to help promote alcohol awareness on campus. We greatly appreciate your help in locating this key element. If you can help, call Carol Jenkins at ext. 6787.

STAFF NEWS

Co-op News

Cooperative Work Experience participated in the Texas Employment Commission's Greater Texas Exhibit in Dallas on July 10. Debbie Zimmerer hosted a booth and made some valuable employer contacts.

CCTEP News

Patricia Beebe, executive director of the Collin County Training and Employment Program, was an opening plenary session presenter at the Texas Association of Private Industry Council's annual employment and training conference in Houston on June 28. Giving her views as a practitioner, Beebe was a member of a panel discussing the future of the Job Training Partnership Act.

Audience members at the opening session included Department of Commerce and JTPA staff members, Private Industry Councils and administrative officials from the 35 service delivery areas in Texas, and representatives of the CCTEP partnership in Collin County.

CCCC Sees Red

On behalf of the patients and hospitals they serve, the Blood Center at Wadley along with the Student Activities Office would like to thank those who participated in the blood drive July 8 at CCCC. At Spring Creek Campus, 22 units of blood were drawn, and at Central Park Campus, 12 units were drawn.

To provide a more private atmosphere for the Wadley representatives to work with donors, the blood drive at Spring Creek Campus was held in a new location. We hope that all of our loyal donors found this new location (F108A) without any problems.

We will continue to advertise upcoming blood drives through the Caleidoscope and flyers and banners placed around campus. The next blood drive at Central Park Campus is scheduled for Oct. 29 from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. At Spring Creek Campus, the next blood drive is Nov. 4-5 from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. both days. Please put these dates on your calendar, and remember to give blood if you can.

Thank You

"Thank you to Student Activities for providing funds for the Respiratory Club to travel to San Antonio for the Sputum Bowl."

We Need Your Help!

“Getting to Know Us Day”

Orientation for New Employees

The first college-wide orientation day for new employees at CCCC will be held on July 31. This will be our “pilot,” and we need your assistance. Below is the schedule of the orientation which will allow new employees to visit most departments of the college at both campuses. We would like each department to have one person designated to meet with the group as they tour your area. You will notice the schedule is fast-paced. We want to give new employees an overview of the college, its mission and people. For more information, please call Martha Ellis ext. 6606 or Mary Wright ext. 6605 with the name the person who will be hosting the group in your area. Thank you.
