Attendance Policy: Regular attendance is required for successful completion of this course as all assignments and major concepts and literary works will be discussed in class. In addition, we will be completing group and individual daily work in class for which attendance is necessary. If you must be absent, let me know by email either before the class you will be missing or immediately following your absence. You are responsible for any and all deadlines, assignments, and announcements you missed during your absence.

Late Work: All work is due in Canvas at the time and date specified in each assignment. As a rule, I do not accept assignments that are more than twelve (12) hours late. If you miss a submission deadline, for any reason at all, you must speak with me face-to-face and get permission to submit the assignment late. This policy does not apply to work submitted within twelve hours of the appropriate due date and time.

PLEASE NOTE: I do not accept assignments via email. It is your responsibility to submit your work using the appropriate link for the assignment in Canvas. ONLY work submitted through Canvas will be graded. Graded in-class activities and quizzes may not be made up and earn zero points.

Method of Evaluation: Your grade for this course will be based on the following:

- 3 Short, Informal Response Papers - 30% – Approximately 2-3 pages each; responds to assigned literature selections and incorporates outside sources; prompts and requirements for each short paper will be provided; each paper counts 10% of your total grade for a maximum possible 30%
- Research Project & Presentation - 30% – You will select one literary work from a list of literary works provided; you will read/research this work outside of class and prepare a documented research report, including visual and textual elements; your project will be presented to the class through the Discussion area in our Canvas course room.
- Attendance & Participation - 20% – In-class discussion; impromptu free-writing and discussion board postings; quizzes; and other work completed in class or assigned as daily homework
- Final Exam – Short Answer and/or Essay - 20% – A comprehensive exam taken during the final exam period set for this class; questions might require either short answers or brief essays as a response

Additional Course Policies

Class Discussion and Personal Conduct: In this class, we will be discussing a variety of topics – some of which you and or others might feel strongly about. Please demonstrate a civil regard for all present in class each day by acknowledging respectfully their opinions and values. Listen attentively when others are speaking; and, avoid undue distraction such as tardy arrivals, early departures, etc. Please respect the differences of others, including mine, and we will respect yours.

Cell Phones: Please turn all cell phones off before entering the classroom. All cell phones must be off and out of sight during tests. No phone calls, text messaging, or picture taking is allowed in class at any time.

Email Policy: Please use Cougar Web email to contact me. Please note: I do not respond to email that is sent from any email services other than Cougar Web as they are not secure and sending information through other email services could violate federal privacy regulations.

NOTE: I am always available immediately after class and during office hours to answer any questions or concerns you might have. For the fastest response to email questions, please use the Canvas mail function to contact me. I log into Canvas at the beginning of each class I teach, so I will see your message much sooner than if you send it through Cougar Mail.

Collin College's Strategies of Behavioral Intervention (SOBI) team is an interdisciplinary, college-wide team whose mission is to provide support for students, faculty, and staff, and to facilitate a positive and effective learning environment. In order to accomplish this, the SOBI team has designed a process for assisting students who may display various levels of concerning behavior (e.g., strange or unusual behavior; changes in dress, personal hygiene, or physical appearance; threats of harm to self or others; etc.). Any behavior that becomes a concern to you or that negatively affects your ability to succeed as a student at Collin College may be referred to SOBI.

Please note that SOBI is not a disciplinary committee, and SOBI actions are not a substitute for disciplinary procedures. Reports of Student Code of Conduct (Code) violations will be referred directly to the Dean of Students for disciplinary action.

To submit a SOBI referral through CougarWeb, go to the "Student" tab, scroll down to the section entitled, "Safety and Wellness" and then click on "Refer information of concern (SOBI)". Complete the form as fully and as accurately as possible. You can obtain more information about SOBI (including how to submit a referral from off-campus) on the SOBI website, which can be found here: (<https://www.collin.edu/studentresources/SOBI/>).

Scholastic Dishonesty – Please See Section 7-2.2 of the Current Collin College Student Handbook.

PLEASE NOTE: If a student is found responsible for academic dishonesty, a penalty ranging from a 0 on an assignment to an F in the course will be assigned based on the instructor's interpretation of the severity of the situation
