English 1301 & 1302 Essay Grading Criteria

Excellent (A)	Good (B)	Adequate (C)	Poor (D)	Failing (F)
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Controlling idea/thesis is significant, important, logical, and solidly supported. Evidence is relevant, concrete, clear, and substantial. Paper shows originality and creativity. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Controlling idea/thesis is logical and important. Evidence is relevant, concrete, and substantial. The ideas expressed and/or the evidence provided is not as significant or as original as the "A" paper. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Controlling idea/thesis is, for the most part, logical. Evidence does not clearly define or advance the thesis. Evidence may be irrelevant, too general, or repetitious. The ideas expressed are unoriginal, obvious or general. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Controlling idea/thesis is largely illogical, fallacious and/or superficial. Evidence is insufficient, obvious, contradictory, or aimless. The ideas expressed are unoriginal, obvious or general. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Lack of controlling idea/ thesis. Evidence and discussion provided may be random and/or without explanation. Relatively few complete ideas expressed in the paper.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Essay establishes a logical order and emphasis, creating a sense of "flow." Paragraphs are focused, idea-centered, and transition smoothly. Introduction pulls the reader in, and the essay continues to be engaging, and the conclusion supports and completes the essay without repeating. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Essay establishes a logical order, indicating emphasis. Paragraphs are focused, idea-centered, and include transitions to indicate changes in direction. Introduction engages the reader, and the conclusion supports without mere repetition of ideas. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Essay does not follow a consistent, logical order, though some order may be apparent through the discussion. Paragraphs are generally focused and idea-centered. Transitions between paragraphs and ideas are obvious and/or dull. Introduction and conclusion are formulaic and uninteresting, offering little insight. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Essay is inappropriately ordered or random, failing to emphasize and advance any central idea. Paragraphs may be chaotic, may lack development, discussion, and shape; transitions are inappropriate, misleading, or missing. Introduction merely states what will follow; conclusion repeats what has already been stated. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Essay seems to lack order and/or emphasis. Paragraphs follow a sort of rule-bound structure (i.e., three to five sentences each) rather than thoroughly developing a single idea. Transitions are inappropriate, misleading, or missing. Neither the introduction nor the conclusion satisfies any clear rhetorical purpose, or may be missing all together.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Sentences are unified, coherent, varied, and emphatic. Word choice is fresh, precise, economical, and distinctive. Tone enhances the subject, conveys the writer's persona, and suits the audience. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Sentences are purposeful, varied, and emphatic. Word choice is precise and distinctive. Tone fits the subject, persona, and audience. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Sentences are competent but lacking emphasis and variety. Word choice is generally correct and distinctive. Tone is acceptable for the subject. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Sentences lack necessary emphasis, variety, and purpose. Word choice is vague or inappropriate. Tone is inconsistent with the subject. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Sentences are incoherent, incomplete, fused, monotonous, elementary, or repetitious, thus obscuring meaning. Tone is unclear or inappropriate to the subject.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Student has clearly met and followed requirements and criteria of the writing prompt. Obvious use of preliminary explorative writing/planning, rough drafts, and revisions. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Student has met and followed the requirements of the writing prompt. Apparent use of preliminary writing/planning, rough drafts, and revision. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Student has met and followed the basic requirements of the assignment.
