Additional Policies:

Projects:

Students will produce formal projects, of varying lengths, over the course of the semester. For this section of the course, students will practice writing as a process, and for each paper, will produce multiple drafts, exchange those drafts with peers, and work to develop their own sense of academic writing. Students will compose a formal email, memo, claim letter, and various guides and manuals. All formal projects will be submitted to the instructor to TurnItIn.com and will be graded electronically. If there are technical issues which prevent uploading the project, please let me know as soon as possible. Please note that it is the student's responsibility to check paper grades in a timely manner. Students will have one week after a final paper grade is posted to discuss issues with the instructor. Students are encouraged to print a digital receipt after uploading their essays, in case of technical issues.

Punctuality:

Students are expected to be in class on time in order to avoid interrupting the class and distracting the students and instructor. It is understandable that on rare occasions students may be late, but students who consistently come into class later than twenty minutes after class has begun will be counted absent for that day. It is the student's responsibility to check in with the instructor after class if roll has been taken.

Late Work Policy:

I do not accept late work, and all work is due at the beginning of class on the assigned dates. I do not accept papers via email. All work must be turned in during class time on the due date. Exceptions to this policy will only be granted in cases of genuinely extenuating circumstances. You must contact me as soon as possible in the case of an emergency. Last-minute computer problems, oversleeping, etc. do not qualify as extenuating circumstances. If you must be absent on a day that an assignment is due, please have a classmate turn it in for you or arrange to turn it in early.

Class Discussion:

In this class, we will be discussing a variety of topics-some of which you may feel strongly about. Remember...not everyone has to, or should, agree. We are all different people from different backgrounds. What may seem "right" to you may not be the same as someone else. Please respect the other students' differences (as well as mine), and they will respect yours. If you feel that someone in this class is not following this agreement, please see me. If at any time I feel that you are not showing respect to me or others, I will discuss this with you. A continuation in similar behavior will result in further action. Please put all mobile phones on silent or vibrate before entering the classroom. In addition, all phones must be put away during class time. There should be no reason to use your phone during class time.

SOBI (Strategies of Behavior Intervention Committee):

Collin College has developed an interdisciplinary, college-wide, Strategies of Behavior Intervention Committee (SOBI) which is designed to assist faculty, staff and students. In support of Collin College's core values, SOBI is designed to facilitate a positive and effective learning environment for all students. SOBI's mission is to provide support for students who experience various levels of distressed, disturbed and/or unregulated behavior. While this covers a large range of possible behaviors, some examples of disruptive behavior are sleeping in class, routine tardiness, leaving early without notice, poor personal hygiene, speaking without being recognized, dominating class discussion, threatening faculty members or other classmates—in and outside of the classroom, harassing faculty members or other students, overt physical disruptions or any other act of violence. SOBI is also designed to assist students who may be experiencing suicidal thoughts, those who are engaging in high-risk behaviors and/or who may be hostile or aggressive. SOBI members will work with students to find them the help they may need to deal with various behavioral issues. Again, those listed here are only some examples of what SOBI can help with. Anything that becomes a concern to you as a student, that negatively affects your ability to succeed as a student at Collin College, may be reported to SOBI.

SOBI is not a disciplinary committee but rather has developed a process by which faculty, staff and students may identify potential problems and address them before they get worse. As stated in the student handbook, SOBI actions are not a substitute for disciplinary procedures and reports of Code of Conduct violations will be referred directly for disciplinary intervention.

To submit a SOBI referral, go to the following address:

Religious Holidays:

Please refer to the current Collin College student handbook.

Academic Ethics:

Please see section 7-2.2 of the Collin Student Handbook.

All cases of academic dishonesty will be reported to the Dean of Student Development office for investigation. Students found responsible for academic dishonesty will receive a penalty ranging from a zero on the essay to an F in the course, depending on the severity of the incident.

Other Policies:

- ❖ The instructor will make changes in objectives, assignments, and due dates for this course if necessary. Any changes will be announced beforehand in class.
- ❖ Computers are to be used in the classroom only when the instructor has made a specific assignment. They are not to be used to check e-mail, surf the internet, work on non-related papers, etc., unless permission is given. Consistent disregard of this rule will result in computer privileges being taken away or a possible lowering of grades.
