Method of Evaluation:

Students' work is evaluated by means of A, B, C, D, or F: Superior, Good, Average, Poor, and Unacceptable. Numerical grades are assigned for convenience in averaging grades only. All assignments must be completed and turned in on the date due before student will receive credit for the assignment.

Essays and writing assignments will be evaluated according to the following criteria:

1. use of the conventions of standard grammar;
2. use of the appropriate method of development;
3. use of the principles of unity and coherence; and,
4. use of logical, factual arguments to advance the thesis of the assignment.

Grading Policy:

1. Labs and Grammar Exam 20%
2. Assessment Essay 20%
3. Narrative Essay 15%

5. Informative Essay 15%
6. Critical Analysis 15%
7. Departmental Final Exam: In class essay 15%: You must take the final exam (essay) on the prescribed final exam date. This exam cannot be made up.
8. The Lab component of this course will strictly cover grammar and usage. Labs will be used to calculate a final grade and no student may pass without full lab completion.

Attendance Policy:

Punctual and regular class attendance is required of all students attending Collin County Community College. There are no excused absences except with the proper school official's approval, i.e. school trips, field trips, school sponsored sports events, band or choir or theater travel, etc. . . Students are responsible for all class work covered during absences from class, even in cases in which they satisfy me that the absence was unavoidable. Each absence will count three points off for each absence. Being late for class will count one point per infraction. Papers turned in late will be counted off one letter grade per day that the work is tardy, and those late days will include days between classes and weekends. Excessive tardiness is inexcusable and will not be tolerated; after one's third tardy, each additional tardy will count as a full day's absence.

Religious Holy Days: Please refer to the current Collin Student Handbook.

Academic Ethics: The College District may initiate disciplinary proceedings against a student accused of scholastic dishonesty. Scholastic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to, statements, acts, or omissions related to applications for enrollment or the award of a degree, and/or the submission as one's own work material that is not one's own. Scholastic dishonesty may involve, but is not limited to, one or more of the following acts: cheating, plagiarism, collusion, use of annotated texts or teacher's editions, and/or falsifying academic records.

Plagiarism is the use of an author's words or ideas as if they were one's own without giving credit to the source, including, but not limited to, failure to acknowledge a direct quotation.

Cheating is the willful giving or receiving of information in an unauthorized manner during an examination, illicitly obtaining examination questions in advance, copying computer or Internet files, using someone else's work for assignments as if it were one's own, or any other dishonest means of attempting to fulfill the requirements of a course.

Collusion is intentionally aiding or attempting to aid another in an act of scholastic dishonesty, including but not limited to, providing a paper or project to another student; providing an inappropriate level of assistance; communicating answers to a classmate during an examination; removing tests or answer sheets from a test site, and allowing a classmate to copy answers.

Plagiarism, because it is a form of theft, burglary, kidnapping, or dishonesty that interferes with the goals of education, must carry severe penalties.

Before assigning a grade penalty, I will report suspected cases of plagiarism, collusion, and/or any scholastic dishonesty along with documentation to the Dean of Students. A copy of the Incident Report form is on CougarWeb. The instructor will be notified of the Dean's ruling in the case.
