Course Resources:

The Norton Field Guide to Writing with Readings and Handbook 4th edition and

Book in Common – Death in the Air by Kate Winkler Dawson

Supplies: Pens, and a notebook.

Minimum Student Skills: Read assigned reading before each class and bring your books each day. Basic internet, email, and Word skills.

Email Expectations: Please do your best to proofread emails before you send them. Emails should include a subject line, relevant to the content of the email, a greeting, separate paragraphs for disparate items of discussion, and a sign off with your name, class, and section number. I will only correspond with you through your CougarMail address (username@collin.edu). Please do not email me from any other account.

Attendance Policy: Attendance is very important in this class as all assignments and major concepts will be explained during class and participation grades are taken regularly. If you miss ten minutes or more of class from arriving late or leaving early, you will be considered absent. If you must be absent, please let me know by email. You are responsible for all deadlines. I will not accept late papers. Collin College excused absence policy: religious holiday. However, this is not an excuse for late papers.

Methods of Evaluation: To pass this course, students must meet all course requirements.

Writing Assignments: All assignments will be in MLA format. Writing assignments will be submitted to Turnitin or Canvas. I will give clear instructions before due dates.

All essays that you write for this class should be original. Do not use an essay that you have submitted for previous or concurrent classes. You are required to bring a rough draft to class on peer review days. Failure to bring your rough drafts to class on the days specified will result in an absence for the day.

Plagiarism Policy: The penalty will range from redoing the existing paper to starting over with a new topic (failure to cite a couple of passages). You will be reported for plagiarism and receive a zero for the assignment if 50% or more of the paper is plagiarized (cut and paste).

Essay Grades are determined by the following evaluation scale:

Content/Thesis (main argument narrowed and clearly stated as well as thoroughly and logically supported) 15%

Organization (clear introduction, thesis, orderly paragraphing, smooth transitions, sense of conclusion) 15%

Syntax (appropriate and varied sentence structure) 10%

Wording (exact and appropriate words without filler) 10%

Formatting (appropriate documentation, in text citations, using MLA style) 10%

Audience (clear and appropriate for intended audience) 10%

Mechanics: Usage 10%, Punctuation 10%, Spelling 10%

Labs:

Writing Center (at least one visit) – 5 units

Attend one Writing Workshop and write a reflection paragraph – 5 units

Book in Common Assignments – 6 units

Lab Assignments

The lab component is an integral part of this writing course. Over the course of the semester, you will need to complete the three lab assignments. This lab work is not the same as regular daily coursework that you must complete to stay on track in the class; it is instead designed to be additional writing-focused activities, which will help improve your writing throughout the term. During the semester, you will need to track and provide evidence of completing these lab requirements outside of class.

Method of Evaluation

Attendance, Participation & Class Assignments: 10%

Labs: 10%

Homework/Quizzes: 10%

Summary: 5%

Annotated Bibliography: 10%

Textual Analysis: 15%

Report Information: 15%

Portfolio: 10%

Presentation: 10%

Final Exam: 5%

Student Conduct: Respect the class. All students are expected to participate in class and in small group discussions, and all students are expected to behave in a mature and respectful manner. Disruptive behavior will not be tolerated. Any student who disrupts the class or who interferes with classroom instruction or discussion will be asked to leave the class and will not receive credit for attendance.

Be prepared. It is important that you bring your books and supplies to class each time we meet. Furthermore, it is very important to read the assigned readings and complete homework before class.

No cell phones! Cell phones are to be turned off or silenced and put away in the classroom. All phone conversations should occur outside the classroom. DO NOT read or send text messages. Students should give their full attention to learning for the time we are in the classroom. Using a cell phone for any reason during class is disrespectful to me and your classmates.

Put away iPods and MP3 players. Do not wear ear buds or headphones during class. If you do so, you will be asked to leave the room and will be counted absent.
