STATUE STOOD
WITH SILENCED LEGS

Greg McClure

statue stood with silenced legs never held by her or his (monolith monument obelisk) known by almost and loved by nearly everyone all (both here and there) paid their dues to statue still skyline stature merits awe pure as stone and strong as same masses (mad and merry) knelt dressed their front and turned their back (monument obelisk monolith) they sighed her wonder they breathed her praise one night nature ran his course and statue burned as by he passed to everyone's no she held her first joy through pain in natures sleep hammer by handle (swing and swung) forth and back and down and up (obelisk monolith monument) even stone falls stone by stone nature's course was sooner later and statue's silence broken dreamed (as seasons turned in timely fashion) known just once and loved once less
