I would vote you into office
if you would only run Run for office or run for the hills
You've got me either way

Bright eyes
Though you're hard to see I think you just might be my very own hesitating beauty

You're like a cowl covering me Which no one else can see I've grown used to this feeling
And I don't mind its being unrequited Tagging along behind me daily.

Stepping on my heels and whistling in my ear, mild rebukes that turn my mouth up at the corners.
