Running

BeLynn D. Hollers

While you're out
We're dying at home

I'm sick
of the back of your phone

You hide
your insecurities
in a glass screen

Choosing pleasure over loyalty

Here she is choosing pain over conformity

You'll go it alone
I just go on runs

You can't face reality
She's facing attorneys

You can't face
that you're wrong

Now you both will go it alone

I just go on runs

Breathing

for a couple of songs
