Not What I Seem

Victoria Grossmann

I am not what I seem
I am unwieldy and damaging
I am gentle and calm, but that is before the storm

I am not what I seem
I am destructive and forceful
I am sturdy and reliable, but that is before I break

I am not what I seem
I am chilling and despair
I may seem nice and tranquil, but that is before I boil

I am not what I seem
I am your warmth and comfort
I am destructive and hurtful, but that is your rose-colored film

We are not what we seem
We are both disruptive and serene
We may seem one-sided, but just flip the coin
