Stone

Sanan Chaudhry

A heart of stone
Tumbling through the vast expanse of life
It beats like the drummers in a band
Sabetha always knew how to listen to it
She would put her head inside your chest
And listen to the hearts' words
Saying it sounded like a voice of red
"Like blood?"
I got a frown for that one.
"No seas estúpido."
Perhaps a pebble rolling down a hill
Could mimic the sound.
