

TRENDS IN TEACHING COLLEGE COMPOSITION

FORGOTTEN THINGS

Composition has always been in a state of flux.

“Forgotten Things” allows composition instructors to consider the old paradigms and the new.

Call for proposals for the 2025 Trends Conference.

Potential Topics Include:

- Embracing the Old
- Pedagogical Strategies
- Preventing Plagiarism
- Integrating the New with the Old
- Helping Students Develop Soft Skills

Deadline for Submission

June 30

This one-day conference will be hosted by Collin College at its Frisco Campus location. Committee members encourage faculty from two-year and four-year schools to share their expertise presenting a panel or an interactive, collaborative, or teaching demonstration.
